

PROJECT: INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION - BETTER TRAININGS (INCOT)

2017-1-PL01-KA202-038409

Key action 2: Cooperation for innovation and the exchange of good practices
Strategic partnerships in the field of education, training and youth

<http://gfw.pl/projekty/incot-international-cooperation-better-trainings/>

<https://twitter.com/WaterFundation>

<http://www.isleutilities.com/news/the-incot-project>

<http://www.isleutilities.com/news>

<https://www.lfu.bayern.de/wasser/ttw/rueckblick/index.htm>

<https://ec.europa.eu/epale/pl/blog/projekt-incot-international-cooperation-better-trainings>

<https://ec.europa.eu/epale/en/content/incot-international-cooperation-better-trainings>

Project working results:

Characteristic:

	Poland	Germany	Netherlands
Organization of vocational trainings	A large market of commercial training	Well organized, many institutions that have institutional and financial support	A large market of commercial training
Organization of vocational training of future staff (students)	Not organized	Students are engaged as volunteers in training organizations. Study programs at high schools/universities are organized at the request of employers.	There are some programs for students developing their knowledge outside of the course of study
Financing employee vocational training	From the budget of employers	From the budget of employers	From the budget of employers
Requirement of continuous employee's education	No formal requirements	Required training of employees	No formal requirements
Popular forms of training	Traditional training in training rooms	Traditional training in training rooms, great emphasis on workshop training	Traditional training in training rooms, using online meetings
Speakers	Practitioners	Practitioners	Practitioners

Recommendations:

- organization of international training and international exchange of experience for water and sewage sector
- promotion of international professional networking and recognition of diplomas and certificates
- undertaking activities to develop cooperation between training institutions
- organizing online meetings
- creating a network of cooperation between training institutions
- promotion among the staff of the water and sewage sector (and students as future cadres) model of lifelong learning, use of information technologies and learning English
- professional and methods of certification of this education
- undertaking actions aimed at introducing the obligation of further education
- creating a common education system raising qualifications in the water and sewage sector and developing recommendations for recognition of these qualifications on the international arena.